

John T. Spahr

John T Spahr, a life member of Post 8787 in Austin, Texas, was appointed as Chief-of-Staff to the Department of Texas, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, by Commander E. "Al" Cantu, Jr at the 87th State Convention in Corpus Christi, Texas on June 30, 2007.

A VFW member since 2002, Spahr has held the offices of Post Commander, District Commander, Department Officer of the Day, and Travis County Council Commander. He was honored as All-State Post Commander in 2003-04 and was National Aide-De-Camp in both 2003-04 and 2005-06.

Comrade Spahr served in the United States Air Force from 1965 to 1968 including a year at Osan AB Korea.

John Spahr is currently retired and lives in Georgetown, Texas with his wife Sue who is an active member in VFW Ladies Auxiliary 8787. John enjoys golf and computers in his spare time.

